

Family Law Associate Attorney Opening

- DuBois Levias Law Group, PLLC, a fast-paced boutique family law firm with over 30 years of experience, is looking to add a talented lawyer or two. Second career candidates encouraged to apply. We love a good multitasker with great interpersonal skills.

Who we are:

- We're one of Seattle's longest standing women-owned law firms.
- We seek to maximize human potential one family at a time.
- We love to mentor newer lawyers, in fact, we provide new attorneys at least a year of one-on-one feedback followed by ongoing team support.
- We strive to cultivate an honest and compassionate environment for every client and every member of our team.
- We're community leaders who believe a balanced life is achievable through hard work, giving back, and putting family & people first.
- We offer a diverse team of co-workers.
- We're a team that encourages each other through life's challenges.
- We appreciate team members with life experience.
- We mostly work remotely, but love to meet up together in the office frequently.

Who you are:

- You've been practicing family law for a couple of years and have decided that this is where you shine.
- You're at a place in your career where you're looking for your "legal home." Maybe you don't feel appreciated at your current firm, or you're looking for a place where you'll be valued as a person and a professional- and the idea of a women owned firm resonates with you.
- You know that there's always more to learn and love the idea of being mentored by a highly experienced team.
- You want to work with a diverse team of leaders that value you and your contributions to the firm.
- You're comfortable working with people in crisis with compassion and grace, without shying away from tough conversations.
- You value hard work as well as creating a balanced life with time for family and other personal interests.
- You have excellent judgment, you value integrity, and take accountability.
- You're a life-long learner who is confident enough to ask great questions and to work independently.
- You're a strong, savvy advocate for your clients.

Experience and Skills Required:

- Juris Doctorate degree from an accredited law school.
- Admission in good standing to practice law in the State of Washington.
- Two years of family law experience preferred
- Snohomish County experience a plus
- Strong attention to detail.
- Impeccable judgment and maturity
- Strong client advocate and results oriented
